The BabyTime Show, Prenatal to Preschool International Centre, Hall 5 April 3, 4, 5, 2009

TORONTO - the 11th annual BabyTime Show, will provide a complete resource for pregnancy, birth, baby and toddler in a fun and vibrant environment. Parents will find current information on a wide variety of topics and an eye-popping array of the newest products for pregnancy, birth, baby and toddler.

There are over 200 Exhibitors. The exhibitor base is comprised of manufacturers, retailers and service providers who will provide a one-stop shop for attendees. The latest in maternity gear, children's apparel, strollers, nursery furniture and accessories, nutrition, health, childcare, games and toys will be on display.

The Main Stage and Seminar Stage will host pregnancy and parenting experts as well as fun characters to entertain the tots. Visit www.babytimeshows.ca for schedule and further details

"The BabyTime Show is the perfect platform for those who are expecting or parenting young children and who want to access a variety of services, products and creative ideas. We want to celebrate this amazing stage in life and give families full access to current information." says Melissa Arnott, Show Manager, and mother of 2 young sons.
